'Mary, I dreamed of you last night,
or someone who spoke of you, full of grace;
And when you called from the road the child came alive in my womb...
'I have waited for this for so long that I had forgotten that I wanted it to happen.
Now it has and my husband is dumb with disbelief, and I have more words that two tongues can utter.
Mary, what great thing is happening?'
From 'Visitation' by Gene Fendt

Great things indeed! We sometimes tend to think of the Mary of the gospels as a meek, humble character, as indeed she was in many ways, in her acceptance of God's challenging plan for her life. But today, the Feast of the Assumption, we see another side to her. We meet the excited, joy-filled mother who exclaims: 'My should proclaims the greatness of the Lord and my spirit exults in God my saviour'. We can almost feel Mary and Elizabeth dancing with excitement. Elizabeth's greeting 'Of all women you are the most blessed' marks the greatness of the moment. It also foreshadows Mary's future glorification. Wednesday's gospel reminds us of the early days of Mary's extraordinary journey; our mother Mary, who knew such human emotions as excitement, hope and a mother's love, and who understands our needs.
