Welcome to God and from God

Most homes have a crib of some sorts; it is the heart of our Christmas. It brings the mystery of the birth of Jesus into our homes. Some church cribs have an open front – a sign that all are welcome and yet many people may feel unwelcome in the church – e.g. people in second or other relationships that cause questions to be asked, families who feel ashamed for what some of their family members may have done, people who have spent time in prison, mental hospital or living on the streets, people in/ recovering from different forms of addiction or mental health issues, People who live alone or on the streets without family support.

Like the shepherds at the first crib, all were welcome. As church we need to welcome all at this time of year all who wish to greet Jesus. May we welcome all people as God does, with the compassion and love that is of God?

Christmas reminds us to deal with each other with a little more love, sensitivity and compassion. Jesus coming among us reminds us that he is right there in our midst, but we do not always recognise him - in so far as you do it to these people you do it to me.

An old Christmas prayer

Pray with your breathing – with every outbreath simply say a name you wish to remember in prayer.

And maybe even pray this sufi prayer:

*Your light o Lord is in all forms, Your love in all beings,
Allow us to recognize You in all your holy names and forms.*

Happy, Holy and Peaceful New Year

Liturgical 'Sign of Peace' The Sign of Peace remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The customary expression of the Sign of Peace in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the sign of peace such as a nod, a bow or a smile are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. No offence should be taken if someone prefers to express a non-contact Sign of Peace. The Diocese encourages all to continue to exercise good hygienic practices, particularly over the Christmas season, and if you exhibit flu-like symptoms, you are encouraged to remain at home.

Web Camera's Mater Dei Church and St Joseph's are both equipped with web-cameras. All Liturgies are broadcast. The cameras are live 24/7 and are focused on the Sanctuaries and first three seats at the front of each Church. To access the broadcasts, go to: www.churchservices.tv/stjosephglenavy or www.churchservices.tv/materdeicrumlin. The web-cams enable us to attend Mass, however they do not allow us to receive the Eucharist, the Body of Christ. When possible, we should attend Mass in the Church whenever our circumstances permit in order to receive Holy Communion.

Making your offering to the church Parishioners are encouraged to make donations to the parish either by using the parish envelopes or by means of bank transfer.
